SOFTWARE FOR REAL ESTATE PROFESSIONALS

Anticipating an Exciting and Successful 2021

The new year brings a fresh look at what's ahead. We have big plans for 2021. Our development team is hard at work on new products to make your appraisal work easier.

Saving you time and money is our goal. Acquainting all appraisers with Appraise-It Pro is at the top of our list. Currently, in use by many appraisers, it is getting great reviews. For those preferring to wait to install that's okay, but in the meantime, why not take a quick look? Appraise-It runs side-by-side with Appraise-It Pro by design. Continue using Appraise-It while you review Appraise-It Pro as you have time. A longtime customer recently responded:

"I've been with you for years but just started using Pro at Thanksgiving time. LOVE, LOVE, LOVE it!!!"

We anticipate 2021 is going to be exciting, busy, and prosperous. We are looking forward to sharing it with you.

SFREP Calendar to Focus on Valuable Webinars

SFREP is planning a full schedule of training options for Appraise-It-Pro and more in 2021. Webinars this month include:

Valuation Magazine For Industry News

Valuation magazine is the primary publication of the Appraisal Institute. The latest quarterly edition is now available. This issue features timely articles, as well as recurring columns that provide tips for products and resources important to appraisers, all from knowledgeable industry experts.

Changes Ahead - The U.S. has a new president, a new Congress, and new policy goals, all of which may affect the valuation profession.

Taking Stock - It's been quite a year. See what Appraisal Institute leadership says about the state of the valuation profession.

Cool Tools - The Grammarly app helps appraisers write like a professional, available for Android or IOS devices.

Check out the current and archived issues on the Appraisal Institute's website free of charge to all appraisal professionals (AI members and non-members alike).

Reminder:

- Join other appraisers already participating in one of the best sources for up-to-the-minute information in the appraisal industry on the Appraiser Exchange.
